Happy readers with their Barnes & Noble books!

A Letter from our Director

Dear Families,

There is no doubt that we've had a dark few months during the Covid-10 global pandemic. Fortunately, the days are growing longer (about 5 minutes a day!), restrictions in our community are easing, and best of all, fishing season is just around the corner.

Although Migrant Education service and programming plans have been changed, we are working hard to find ways to continue providing services for our students. Our Summer newsletter has some great information on upcoming events and also has the 2020 fishing calendar. We love getting pictures from our families; please keep sending them!

Be well,
Doreen Brown

Save your dates this summer!

Updating your fishing dates on a yearly basis ensures that your student(s) maintains their eligibility for service priority. At the end of the summer you can either mail your calendar to the Migrant Education office or snap a picture and email it to us at migrant_office@asdk12.org. Be safe and remember to wear a life vest!

Barnes & Noble Book Fair

Barnes & Noble Books Are on the Way! 1,100 students are getting books through the Migrant Education literacy grant. Due to Covid-19 many warehouses experienced temporary closures, which in turn delayed some items and you will most likely get multiple packages over the span of several weeks.

You'll receive an email from Barnes & Noble for items that are unavailable and they will work with you to find a replacement. Thank you all so much for your patience as orders are processed and distributed.

If you haven't received all of your books by Sunday, May 24th please email the Barnes & Noble team at: crm2784@bn.com

Summer Camp Update

All in-person programming has been cancelled. We have been working closely with Trailside Discovery and the Anchorage Museum to develop a virtual alternative to in-person programming. This alternative will include an engaging kit of materials and supplies that will support the virtual camps. We will have more information shortly and will send it out as soon as possible. If you registered your students for camps already, they will be contacting you.

Water Safety

As the school year wraps up and the weather warms, Migrant families will be emerging from the hunker-down to head out on boating, camping, and fishing activities across the state. We would like to remind families to practice water safety around Alaska's lakes and rivers.

Check out these short Kids Don't Float videos which includes lessons and activities to teach boating safety, cold water survival, and the importance of wearing a life jacket. https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLgGrAXILoSh9X1oUn2e-Ae0f6HNe_WFWM

Migrant Education has a limited number of life jackets available for eligible families to check out. If anyone in your family needs a life vest this summer, please let us know by requesting one through this link. <https://forms.gle/KpTobQDBqcZiWDDo7> Curbside pickup will be available on May 28 and May 29 from 10am-2pm at Hanshew, Romig, and Begich.

Broiled Salmon with Thai Sweet Chili Glaze

(A Migrant Education Office Favorite!)

By Jennifer Segal, inspired by Bon Appétit

Broiled salmon that has been marinated in sweet chili sauce, soy sauce & ginger develops a lovely caramelized top while cooking.

Servings: 4

Total Time: 30 Minutes, plus 1 hour to marinate

INGREDIENTS

- 1-1/2 pounds (or four 6-ounce pieces) salmon, skin on or off
- 6 tablespoons Thai Sweet Chili Sauce (best quality, such as Mae Ploy or Thai Kitchen)
- 3 tablespoons soy sauce (use gluten-free if needed)
- 1 tablespoon peeled and finely grated fresh ginger
- 2 scallions, green parts only, finely sliced

INSTRUCTIONS

- Set the oven rack 5-6 inches from the top and preheat the broiler.
- Make the marinade by combining the sweet chili sauce, soy sauce and ginger in a shallow baking dish. Spoon 1/4 cup of the marinade into a small dish and set aside (this will be the sauce for the cooked fish). Add the salmon fillets, skin side up, to the remaining marinade and marinate for 1 hour in refrigerator.
- Line a rimmed baking sheet with aluminum foil and spray with nonstick cooking spray. Transfer the salmon fillets to the prepared baking sheet, skin side down, and drizzle a bit of the marinade over top. Go easy -- you don't want it to pool too much on the baking sheet because it will burn in the oven. Broil the salmon for 6-10 minutes, or until browned in spots and almost opaque in the center. Transfer the salmon to a serving platter and pour the reserved sauce over top. Garnish with scallions and serve.
